

BIG ARMIES LOCKED IN FURIOUS BATTLE ON WARSAW FRONT

Foe Dislodged From Pilica Positions, Petrograd Asserts—Actions Favorable to Kaiser, Berlin Contends.

Attack on French Trenches at Lorete Successful, Asserts Berlin—Paris Claims Advance and Repulse of Counter Assaults at Perthes.

Stripped in desperate battle along the former war front west of Warsaw, great Teuton and Slav forces are again bitterly contesting the territory which affords mastery of the Polish capital and protects Russia proper. Both Petrograd and Berlin announce favorable results in the bloody fighting on the northern bank of the Pilica; the former already asserts halting the newly assumed German offensive and shelling the foe from newly established positions; the latter chronicles maintenance of ground in the new and menacing drive on the Pole capital.

Both war offices report advantages on the North Poland front, where Petrograd declares a new invasion of East Prussia is imminent and where Berlin announces checking hostile advances at Ostrolenka, Przanysz and Augustowo. Vienna chronicles successes in the Carpathians, where, it is said, attacks at Lupkow Pass have been checked.

Germans failed in their attempt to storm the French trenches near Perthes in a blinding snowstorm and in a counter-assault the French advanced their lines, capturing 1600 feet of trenches. The loss of positions near Beausejour is admitted by the French in their official report, but gains are announced at Badonville and St. Mihiel.

GREAT ARMIES LOCKED IN BIG BATTLE ON PILICA RIVER

Petrograd Reports Repulse of New German Offensive at Rawa.

PETROGRAD, March 9.

Two great German and Russian armies are locked in the grip of battle in the Pilica region, south of the Vistula River, in Poland, where the forces of Grand Duke Nicholas are striving to dislodge the soldiers of Field Marshal von Hindenburg from their positions.

A German offensive in that region has failed, it is reported, and the Germans have retired to a strong position along a series of heights. The Russians are now shelling these positions with the utmost vigor, preparatory to an attempt to carry them with the bayonet. A big battle is developing there along a seven-mile front. Fighting is particularly vigorous in the vicinity of Rawa, Tomaszow and Opoczno.

BRITAIN MAY HANG CREWS OF UNDER-SEA RAIDERS

Admiralty Hints at Drastic Treatment for Submarine "Murderers."

LONDON, March 9.

The Board of Admiralty does not feel justified in extending the honorable treatment to the 29 officers and men of the sunken German submarine U-5, on the ground that they were guilty of attacking and sinking unarmed merchantmen.

This significant statement was issued last night by the Official Press Bureau. It is announced that it is intended to segregate these German prisoners under special restrictions, pending their possible conviction at the conclusion of peace.

The crew of the U-5 was captured recently when that submarine was sunk off Dover.

The policy to be adopted toward the crews of German submarines is in answer to the demand of Admiral Lord Charles Beresford, retired, and others that such men be tried for murder, and the Admiralty statement indicates that the Government has this in mind. The statement refers to the generous treatment accorded other German naval officers and men saved, numbering more than 100.

BERLIN REPORTS PROGRESS IN NEW WARSAW DRIVE

Advantage Also Claimed in North Poland Sectors.

BERLIN, March 9.

Today's official bulletin asserts progress for the new German offensive on the front west of Warsaw. Repulse of Slav attacks north of Rawa and northwest of Kozlo Maletko and capture of 1700 prisoners are reported.

On the extended line in North Poland German advances are claimed. Slav attacks east and south of Augustowo were checked with heavy losses to the assailants. On the Loma-Ostrolenka line Russian attacks were unsuccessful, while in the Przanysz sector engagements continue favorable to the Kaiser's men.

GERMANS STORM AND CAPTURE TWO TRENCHES AT LORETE

French Positions and Prisoners Taken, Says Berlin Official Report.

BERLIN, March 9.

Two French trenches on Lorete heights were stormed and captured, according to an official statement issued today. Six officers and 250 men, as well as machine guns and munitions, were also taken.

Snow and floods are hampering operations in the Vosges, where battles are raging near Muenster and Senheim. At Souilly, in the Champagne, an engagement is on and at Les Meunil the French were repulsed by artillery fire.

GERMANS FAIL IN ATTACK ON TRENCHES NEAR PERTHES

French Report Gains in Counter Assaults—Also Admits Losses.

PARIS, March 9.

A determined attack of the Germans made during a blinding snowstorm, upon a position recently captured by the French in a woods to the west of Perthes in the Champagne region, was repulsed with heavy loss, asserts an official report from Paris. Following the German repulse the French say they took the offensive and gained ground to the north and east of their original position, also capturing some prisoners. More than 1000 feet of trenches were taken in this attack.

The loss of some entrenched positions between Le Vignil and Beausejour is admitted in the report, which also claims gains to the north of Meunil.

A German position near St. Mihiel was stormed and a large store of materials captured. An attack at Pont-a-Mousson was repulsed, while progress was made near Badonville.

BLOCKADE PLAN OPEN TO DEBATE, SAY ALLIES

British Will Assert Right to Stop All Commerce With Germany—U. S. to Protest.

WASHINGTON, March 9.—England and France have unofficially intimated to the United States that the forthcoming order in council, confirming the German blockade "will be debatable."

This coming order it is now known will claim the right to stop German-bound commerce anywhere on the high seas. But because of the broad nature of the claims it will be explained that neutral shipping is to be more effectively safeguarded than heretofore.

Senator Hoke Smith, of Georgia, said today that he was advising his constituents to continue their shipments of cotton both to enemy ports and to neutral ports.

The peculiar thing about the British announcement of yesterday, he said, "is that it declares nothing as what will be done with vessels and cargoes of cotton sailing for enemy ports after they had been stopped. We can only assume that a compensation will be made for any cargoes of cotton so seized. I have been advising my constituents to go on shipping their cotton. I do not see how these shipments can be prevented."

The United States has decided that it will not acquiesce in any claims by any of the belligerents of "right of might." It will insist that it has the right to trade with all countries under existing treaties, subject only to the authorized stoppage of contraband or by proper proclamation and enforced blockade. This has been communicated both to England and France.

The one thing which is troubling the United States more than anything else is the belief that England will try to make every article produced in Germany contraband, thus interfering with the shipping to this country of large quantities of dyestuffs already contracted for by Americans. Such action will result in most vigorous protest, and at no time will this Government accept any such ruling, officials say.

SLAVS READY TO LAUNCH NEW EAST PRUSSIA DRIVE

War Office Asserts Gains Along Enemy's Frontier.

Heavy fighting is in progress south of the East Prussian border near Lomza, Plock and Przanysz. The Russians are maintaining a strong offensive all along this line from Kozlo Maletko down to Bobr and Narew Rivers to a point south of Plock. It is with the intention of lessening Russian pressure in this region that the Germans have attacked so vigorously south of the Vistula. It is believed that the Russians will be able to start another drive into East Prussia within the next few days.

The vigorous bombardment of Osozovits has been without effect, it is declared here. Russian sorties coupled with efficient fire of the guns in the Russian fortifications caused heavy losses to the Germans.

The following official statement was given out to explain some misleading points in the German announcement relative to the retreat from Grodno:

"The Germans retreated under continual Russian pressure. The Germans lost thousands of prisoners and six cannon. One flight, in which the Germans were defending a hill, cost them a corps. The retreat was a hasty flight from 12,000 to 15,000 were killed."

AUSTRIANS SHATTER FOES' ATTACKS IN CARPATHIANS

Reinforced Russians Reported Beaten at Lupkow Pass.

VIENNA, March 9.

According to the current bulletin from the War Office, the Austro-German forces in Russian Poland have obtained several successes in battles which still continue. The enemy was dislodged from several trenches, sustaining heavy losses.

On the West Galicia front similar successes were gained in a brief attack.

In the district near Lupkow Pass (in the Carpathians) the Russians, whose thinned ranks had been strongly reinforced, made desperate attacks, thrice pushing forward, only to be shattered in the last rush. In another sector of the battle front Teuton troops, after repelling Russian attacks, surprised them by a counter attack, capturing a strongly fortified height and taking prisoners 10 officers and 200 men. On a neighboring height 1000 men were captured.

In Southeast Galicia a strong hostile cavalry force, which was making an isolated advance against the Austrian wing, suffered a serious reverse.

Russians Capture 18,000 Turks

PETROGRAD, March 9.—Four pashas, 200 Turkish officers and 17,075 men have been captured by the Russians to date, it was officially announced today.

Going to the Expositions? Don't Miss Colorado Scenery

No one can be indifferent to the beauty and grandeur of the Colorado Rocky Mountain scenery, and visitors to the California expositions should make a point of seeing it. Also Denver, Colorado Springs, Pueblo, the Royal Gorge, and Salt Lake City.

Now there's no extra charge for all this if you go via Burlington Route (C. B. & Q.), because it so happens that the through service of that line has been planned so that you pass all of these points by daylight, and you can view from the train a panorama of mountain scenery that is as celebrated as any in the world.

Send us your way, you will not miss this opportunity and I would like to send you, free, some pictures, maps and printed matter, not only of the Colorado, but also of other scenic spots at Yellowstone Park, which by all means, you should visit on the return trip. Please make a note of our help plan the trip for you. Call on a Burlington agent.

QUIT WOBBLING AND JOIN CHRIST—SUNDAY

of the Bible are the only channels through which we can obtain the information that leads us from sin to salvation and into the arms of the Redeemer. And what does that book tell us?—Except you become as little children ye cannot enter the Kingdom of Heaven.

"Billy" flung out his message with all the power of his athletic body and his heaving lungs, and then, leaning over the pulpit and pointing his finger in one direction and then in another, he shouted:

"That's your plan and mine. There is no other. God treats all alike. He doesn't have one plan for the banker and another for the janitor who sweeps the bank. He doesn't have one plan for the millionaire and another for the hobo. Complete surrender to Jesus Christ and doing what He wants you to do in the only way to find true conversion. You are not converted if you have reformed 100 times and have your name on 50 church books."

You admit it's good for the other fellow," he called. "Let me tell you something: the other fellow will admit it's good for you. Are you sure you're not the one? May be you consorted with lewd women, may be you keep some one on the side, may be you come home late with your breath perfumed, and when your wife asks you where you've been you get angry and lie to her and say you have been to the lodge."

"No wonder your wife didn't seem affectionate; no wonder she didn't appear happy; no wonder she doesn't seem to enjoy your company; no wonder her eyes are red when she arises in the morning. Get the love of Christ in your heart, come out on the Lord's side and surprise yourself by seeing how your wife will love you, and how you will love your wife, your home and your children. Let God's sunshine come in and the clouds will disappear."

Efforts are being made to have "Billy" Sunday speak before the Pennsylvania Legislature in Harrisburg and the New Jersey Legislature in Trenton in the interest of local option. William H. Berry, Collector of the Port of Philadelphia, and other leading temperance workers in this city are trying to persuade "Billy" to go to Harrisburg and throw some hot shot into the camp of the liquor interests.

Without debate the New Jersey House of Assembly adopted a resolution offered by Assemblyman Peacock, of Burlington County, last night, requesting that Sunday address the House next Monday afternoon. A reception committee will be appointed and it is probable that the Senate will pass a similar resolution, which event Sunday will be asked to address the bodies in joint assembly.

Arrangements for Sunday's reception at Trenton have not yet been completed.

When asked whether he would accept either of the invitations this morning, Sunday said that while he was in favor of doing everything possible to help drive the "demon rum" out of the land, he would not go to either place unless the call was most urgent and unless it were to preach one of his anti-boose sermons. Under certain conditions, however, he intimated that he might be persuaded to go before the lawmakers and give them his opinion of the "boose" business.

"When I mix up in politics and do not intend to do so," the evangelist said, "I would never consent to speak in Harrisburg or Trenton to either Legislature. If I were expected to do so, I would not go. I am not a politician. I don't trot that way. My work is to preach the Gospel and to work against the liquor evil and other sins, but I'll not go anywhere to speak to please politicians."

From Harrisburg comes the information that liquor lobbyists are circulating stories that Sunday will be there to address the Legislature at a public hearing. Governor Dummer and other local officials say they know nothing definite about it. They have not extended "Billy" a formal invitation to speak, and, if they do, it will be after they have set a definite date for a public hearing.

Tonight Sunday will repeat his discourse on "Doctor Jekyll and Mr. Hyde."

"Billy" received a letter from E. L. Tedman, a friend, this morning, from "Christened" W. V. N. Y. with the inclosure of a letter written by Hugh McMillan for a dozen men, who, with him, were entombed in the Layland mine, in which he said that "while expecting death at any moment, we are on our knees praying to God to save us, and thinking Him that 'Billy' Sunday has led us to find Jesus Christ. May God bless him in his great work as our earnest prayer."

The letter was found when the men were rescued while unconscious from the gas-filled mine.

Sunday received by Sunday today contained a resolution adopted by the Chicago Christian Endeavor Union urging "Billy" to conduct a campaign in that city some time during next winter, when the temperance forces will be working to drive the saloons from Illinois.

The evangelist has decided not to accept an invitation to spend several weeks in Honolulu following his campaign in Paterson, N. J. Instead, he will spend his summer vacation on his fruit ranch in Oregon.

There is much rejoicing at the University of Pennsylvania this morning because "Billy" has consented to give another talk to the students in Weightham Hall next Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The evangelist consented to do the University immediately following his Saturday sermon only after much persuasion and after an appeal sent him containing the signatures of 100 of the men of the institution.

ELATED WITH PRINCETON

Sunday was much elated this morning over the great reception he received yesterday in Princeton, when 615 students of Princeton University took their stand for Jesus Christ. He said the welcome extended him by the men of the Princeton Theological Seminary, under whose auspices he spoke twice, and by the students of the University, was one of the finest he ever received.

It was rumored this morning that the faculty of the seminary was so much pleased with the evangelist and so strongly impressed with his sincerity that officials of the institution had made overtures to "Billy" to accept a professorship at the institution.

Sunday is displeased with difficulties among some of the ushers at the tabernacle. It is understood that he plans to hold another ushers' meeting and give them some strong advice. It is said that some ushers or doorknobs tore up special passes to the platform that Sunday had issued to his guests and friends.

SUNDAY'S SERMON TODAY

"CONVERSION"

"I am going to assume that every man believes the Bible, that Jesus actually lived and walked on the earth. That Jesus was the Son of God, and that He died on the cross that we might be saved. I believe that every man who is not a Christian desires to be one."

"What brings you here? What takes you to the tabernacle night after night? Some of you may tell your friends that I am a great entertainer, that you enjoy being entertained. That's all right. Tell them anything you please, any apology for your unusual attendance, make them think you are just being entertained."

"I know that you are thinking about your soul and hoping that you'll have the courage to take your stand for Christ. You are going to the meetings night after night, watching the converts, looking up to see whom God has caught, and all the time you are inwardly hoping that Jesus will come into your life. I know your desire to be a Christian. You will be when you get a little stronger in the legs."

"What you need to pray for are two strong legs. Just about the time you get a notion to go to the front, the devil comes along and says, 'You're not going to do, and these excuses at the time look good to you. Some one's excuse might be that they will wait till the meetings are over and then join the church quietly. You say, 'I'll be guided by reason; I won't make a public confession. I'll be guided by reason, not sentiment. My friend, you cannot reason yourself into Christianity any more than you can reason half on a bald head. I have tried it, and I know."

WHAT A CHRISTIAN IS.

"You can join church, pay your share of the preacher's salary, attend the meetings, teach Sunday school, return thanks and do everything that would apparently stamp you as a Christian, even pray; but you won't ever be a Christian until you do what God tells you to do."

"Every sinner prays when in danger. It won't do you any good unless you pray with your soul; that's the only prayer for the meritorious that He will be glad to send you, and you'll get them. Prayer without Christ is like climbing a greasy pole on Fourth of July. Make all the motions and yet not raise an inch from the ground."

"No, you cannot reason Christianity into the heart. Reason, you must get into wanting to be, you can reason yourself into resolving to be, but that's as far as reason can take you. You ask what you must do in order to understand well this question of Christianity. I'll tell you what to do—hunt up the authority on the subject. If I am trying to determine a medical question I consult a physician and he consults authorities upon the subject. If I am trying to determine some legal question, I consult some able lawyer who has read and studied and practiced law, and he looks up the decisions recorded in the law books and gives me an opinion I can rely upon."

RELIGIOUS PROPOSITION.

"This is a religious proposition. Let's go to some one who makes a profession along this line. Let us go to some minister, ask him what we must do to be saved. He takes down the highest authority known in the civilized world—the Bible—and he reads: 'Except you become converted and become as little children ye cannot enter the Kingdom of Heaven.'"

"That's the road, and that's the only one mapped out for you and for me. God treats all alike. He doesn't furnish one plan for the banker and another for the janitor who sweeps out the bank. He doesn't have one plan for the millionaire and another for the hobo. He has the same plan for one that He has for another. There is no exception to the rule. Nowhere is it modified, or the contract overruled. It's the law—you may not approve of it, but that doesn't make any difference; that won't change matters."

BUT ONE PLAN OF SALVATION.

"I come to you gentlemen and can say with the utmost assurance that there is but one plan of salvation. 'Except ye become converted and become as little children ye shall not enter the Kingdom of Heaven.'" you get angry and lie to her and say you've been to the lodge."

"No wonder your wife didn't seem affectionate; no wonder she didn't appear happy; no wonder she doesn't seem to enjoy your company; no wonder her eyes are red when she gets up. Get the love of Christ in your heart, come out on the Lord's side and surprise yourself by seeing how your wife will love you, and how you will love your wife, your home and your children. Let God's sunshine come in and the clouds will appear."

GERMAN DUMDUMS FOUND

Cartridges Intended for Sports Used by Turks, Is Charge.

CAIRO, March 9.—The battle of the eastern bank of the Suez canal is evidence of yet another instance in Germany, and the Turks, too, violate rules of civilized warfare.

First, a large quantity of ammunition fell into the hands of the British the whole of it being for rifle volleys. These cartridges are dumdums. The revolver cartridges are flat leaden nose and four all the body of the bullet.

The cartridges were doubtless made there for the use of sportsmen. The revolver cartridges are made there for the use of sportsmen. The cartridges came into the hands of the Turkish soldiers.

Type your bill. Stop!
It is footed—total proved

This latest Remington error-proofer ends a needless waste of clerical time.

FROM now on bills and statements will be written-out, footed and proved simultaneously.

One operation does it. The typist inserts a bill-head in the Remington Adding and Subtracting Typewriter.

She copies the items. But look! Every time the numeral keys are pressed, the figures are both typed and added. The bill automatically foots—with cold steel accuracy.

If the typist prints a wrong total, an error-signal at once calls a halt. The footings will be as correct as though proved by a certified accountant.

The bill—neatly typed and proved—is mailed without a moment's time spent on addition, subtraction or total-proving. Hereafter, every moment spent footing bills and proving totals will be a sheer waste of clerical time. You can start using this machine tomorrow—without altering your accounting system in the slightest.

The only change which occurs is a change from human inaccuracy to mechanical precision—from time-waste to time-saving. Machines installed five years ago have paid for themselves over and over again, in time saved—to say nothing of errors caught before they were made.

A folder "The Story of a Day's Work" gives more details. Write for it today. It is much easier to keep up with the times than to catch up.

The Voice of the People

Postal officials are authority for the statement that the volume of mail received at Harrisburg during the last two weeks, as the result of the campaign of education now being conducted by the railroads of Pennsylvania and New Jersey in an effort to show the people the vital necessity of having the Full Crew—"excess man crew"—Laws repealed, smashes all previous records.

Over 300,000 communications have been sent, each Senator and Assemblyman having been buried beneath an avalanche of letters urging repeal. These figures do not include the great number of persons voicing their sentiment through the medium of hundreds of petitions.

That the great majority of the people of Pennsylvania realize the great benefits and advantages to be derived by the Commonwealth through repeal of this law is unmistakably indicated by the almost unified endorsement of the press. Of these editorials, 305 favor repeal, while only 19 are against it.

The voice of the people also is heard in the prompt and vigorous general action of boards of trade, chambers of commerce, city councils, industrial clubs, and other business organizations. Indicating the great preponderance of public opinion voiced by such associations, the action of Williamsport Board of Trade members is striking. Here the question has been submitted to a referendum vote. To date, this vote stands 155 for repeal, 6 against it.

Action by the Media Civic Association rested on a vote of 213 for repeal, a solitary vote being registered in opposition.

Further emphasis of the overwhelming trend of public opinion is given by 213,000 names already signed to petitions calling for repeal of the Full Crew—"excess man crew"—Law. This also shows what the mass of people want.

Have YOU written to or communicated with YOUR elected representative? If not, do so TODAY, that he may know your wishes and thus be able to intelligently reflect your judgment when the question of repeal comes to a vote.

Unitarian Christianity

Is it your great aim in religion to be saved? Do you consider the thing of paramount importance to be your escape from the hell or punishment that you perhaps deserve? Surely you have not realized how pitifully mean and low are such an aim and conception. The better aim, and the only one worth while, is that of saving—of saving others. It is in your power to save your fellow men from sin, sorrow, suffering. You can give them strength of soul by your communion with God. It is the exercise of this power by which you become a true Unitarian.

Unitarianism is the religion of the future. It is the religion of the world. It is the religion of the soul. It is the religion of the heart. It is the religion of the mind. It is the religion of the spirit. It is the religion of the universe.

They had "kept books" for more than a century

—but six months ago the head bookkeeper saw how the Library Bureau card ledger worked. Then this very old, very conservative hat house in a Pennsylvania city changed its system of keeping accounts.

Previously, they carried a big ledger. Every five years a new book was required, and all the accounts had to be written into it. Now, they have an L. B. "Automatic" card ledger.

It saves time—hours every day. It carries only "open" accounts—every one instantly findable.

There are other concerns, not necessarily old or conservative, which could profitably adopt the L. B. card ledger. You'll realize this by a visit to our salesroom.
